Course Overview and Learning Objectives

This course introduces students to core concepts in microeconomic theory. By the end of the course, students should be able to:

1. Demonstrate a strong understanding of intermediate microeconomic principles and concepts.
2. Derive supply and demand curves from utility and profit maximization problems.
3. Evaluate key microeconomic techniques including consumer behavior, market equilibrium, and maximization.
4. Solve a variety of analytical problems using the tools/techniques of microeconomics.
5. Evaluate and compare outcomes across market structures (perfect competition, monopoly) with respect to efficiency and welfare.
6. Connect theory to practice by solving problems, interpreting real-world examples, and clearly expressing economic reasoning.

Prerequisites

ECON 1113 and ECON 1123 with a grade of C or better and Mathematics 1743 or 1823 or 1914. Fundamental economic concepts and principles; value and distribution theories under conditions of competition, monopoly and monopolistic competition. Appraisal of modern problems in terms of these theories. (F, Sp, Su) [III-SS]

You can walk through Paul's Online Notes for review and further understanding of the Basic Calculus.

Course Materials

- Materials to be used in the class as slides, problem sets, answer keys will be available on canvas.
- Recommended text for the course is:

Intermediate Microeconomics: A Modern Approach (Tenth Edition)

by Hal R. Varian and Marc Melitz. ISBN: 9780393643411

You can purchase the book here. Course materials and references can also be accessed in GitHub here. Moreover you can find the link to the slides directly from the syllabus.

Class Participation/Attendance

You are expected to positively contributing to the learning environment. While this is a summer course and missing one or two days means missing 1-3 entire chapters you will need to learn on your own, there is no “class attendance” grade, I will take attendance daily. Attendance adjustments are as follows: 100% gets a boost of +5 points, ($< 100\%$ & $\geq 95\%$) gets a boost of +2 points and ($< 95\%$ & $\geq 90\%$) gets a bonus of +1 points. These boosts are added to your final course average. If you have official University activities or serious Medical emergencies, just provide me with documentation and you will receive credit for those missed days.

Assignment & Grades

Chapter Quizzes — 60%

There will be Sixteen Chapter Quizzes throughout the course. They will be due on Canvas by midnight on the assigned date. Hard copy submissions are not accepted.

You are allowed to work in groups; however, each student must submit their own assignment. Two lowest quiz grade will be dropped, so only fourteen quizzes count toward your final grade (each worth approximately 3%). Because the lowest grade is dropped, late submissions are not accepted.

Assignments - 15%

There will be two assignments throughout the course. They will be due on Canvas by midnight on the assigned date. Upload your scanned work on Canvas. You are allowed to work in groups, however, each student must submit their own assignment.

Midterms and Final Exam — 25%

Exams will consist of short answer, calculation, and graph-type questions, similar in style to the homework. All exams are closed book and closed note, though a calculator is permitted.

Assessment	Weight	Date
Midterm 1	12.5%	June 26, 2026
Final Exam	12.5%	July 10, 2026

Make-ups are available only in exceptional circumstances (university events, documented illness, etc.) and must be arranged in advance. Documentation may be required.

Grading Scale

Students will be awarded the final grade on the following basis:

Grade	Range
A	90 and above
B	80 – 89.99
C	70 – 79.99
D	60 – 69.99
F	Below 60

University Policies

Mental Health Support Services

Support is available for any student experiencing mental health issues that are impacting their academic success. Students can be seen at the University Counseling Center (UCC) located on the second floor of Goddard Health Center, or receive 24/7 crisis support from a licensed mental health provider through TELUS Health. To schedule an appointment, call the UCC at (405)325-2911 or visit ou.edu/ucc. The UCC is located at 620 Elm Ave., Room 201, Norman, OK 73019.

Title IX Resources and Reporting Requirement

The University of Oklahoma faculty are committed to creating a safe learning environment free from gender and sex-based discrimination, including sexual harassment, domestic and dating violence, sexual assault, and stalking, in accordance with Title IX. If you or someone you know has experienced any form of gender-based discrimination or violence, please contact OU Advocates (available 24/7 at (405)615-0013) or the University Counseling Center (M-F, 8am–5pm at (405)325-2911).

As a GTA, I am a mandatory reporter, meaning I am obligated to report gender-based violence disclosed to me — including in class discussions, writing assignments, emails, and office hours — to the Institutional Equity Office. For more information, contact the Institutional Equity Office at (405)325-3546.

Reasonable Accommodation Policy

The University of Oklahoma is committed to achieving equal educational opportunity for students with disabilities. If you have already established accommodations with the Accessibility and Disability Resource Center (ADRC), please submit your semester accommodation request as soon as possible and contact me privately. If you have not yet established services but have a documented disability, please contact ADRC to begin the registration process at (405)325-3852, adrc@ou.edu, or visit ou.edu/adrc.

Religious Observance

It is the policy of the University to excuse absences resulting from religious observances and to reschedule examinations and required classwork that may fall on religious holidays, without penalty.

Adjustments for Pregnancy/Childbirth Related Issues

Should you need modifications or adjustments to your course requirements because of documented pregnancy-related or childbirth-related issues, please contact the Accessibility and Disability Resource Center at (405)325-3852 and/or the Institutional Equity Office at (405)325-3546 as soon as possible.

Final Exam Preparation Period

Pre-finals week is defined as the seven calendar days before the first day of finals. Faculty may cover new course material throughout this week. For more information, refer to OU's Final Exam Preparation Period policy.

Emergency Protocol

Severe Weather

If you receive an OU Alert to seek refuge or hear a tornado siren:

1. Look for severe weather refuge location maps near building entrances.
2. Seek refuge inside the nearest building.
3. Go to the building's severe weather refuge location, or go to the lowest level in an innermost room. Avoid outside doors and windows.
4. Get in, get down, cover up.
5. Wait for official notice to resume normal activities.

Active Threat — Run, Hide, Fight

The University of Oklahoma embraces a Run, Hide, Fight strategy for active threats on campus.

- Run: If safe to do so, run as far from the threat as possible. Call 911 when in a safe location.
- Hide: Lock and barricade doors, turn off lights, silence devices, and remain hidden until law enforcement arrives.
- Fight: As a last resort, be prepared to defend yourself with improvised weapons.

Save OUPD's contact information: Norman campus — non-emergencies (405)325-1717; emergencies (405)325-1911 or 911.

Fire Alarm/General Emergency

1. Leave the building — do not use elevators.
2. Know at least two building exits.
3. Assist those who may need help.
4. Proceed to the emergency assembly area.
5. Once outside, notify first responders of anyone still inside due to mobility issues.
6. Wait for official notice before re-entering.
